You should know:

-Advance Provisioning Allowance (APA) is an advance payment required in order to cover the costs of yacht preparation, requested supplies, port, mooring and other legal charges and fees, diesel and fuel, communications, extras, guests particular request for services, itinerary, food, beverages etc.

In case APA is not entirely used at the end of the cruise, the remaining part is returned to the person chartering the yacht. In case the spending exceeds the APA, guests are required to pay the additional costs.

-Value Added Tax (VAT) is 12% for Weekly Charter and 24% for Daily Charter. Other local taxes and dues are part of the national regulation of the country in which you cruise and are a legal obligation.

-Fuel Consumption varies upon speed/distance

-Your captain holds a fully signed set of documents on the yacht and you can refer anytime to them during your cruising

-The captain is responsible for the behavior and performance of his entire crew, and of the performance of the yacht and its equipment.

-The main charterer is responsible for the behavior of all his charter guests throughout the charter.

Don't hesitate to require further information for each case; Our team is happy to answer all your questions.
